Re: United States v. Jesus Encarnacion,
19 Cr. 118 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams,

I write in response to the Court's order dated May 15, 2020 scheduling a conference in this matter. Unfortunately, I am not available on the afternoon of May 20, 2020. I will not be at work that afternoon due to a previously scheduled medical appointment. I am available at the same time (or any time after 1 PM) on Tuesday, May 19; Thursday, May 21; or Friday, May 22. I am also available earlier in the day on Thursday and Friday, if any of those times are convenient for the Court. Mr. Encarnacion does not waive his presence at the conference; it is my understanding that the MDC can make defendants available by telephone or video conference. Finally, the defense respectfully requests that the conference take place by telephone (which should hopefully be easier to coordinate with the jail and provide for greater flexibility in scheduling the conference).

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Sarah Baumgartel
